DESCRIPTION

2012 ASTON MARTIN DBS ULTIMATE VOLANTE #44 OF 100

Just in time for the forthcoming motoring season, we are delighted to offer this rare to market, superb, collector grade DBS Ultimate Volante.

In May 2012, Aston Martin announced that the last 100 DBS would be the 'Ultimate DBS' Limited Edition, available as either a Coupe or Volante.

The 'Ultimate' specification included: 2012 model year DBS with 2+2 seating, coachwork in AML Carbon Black, Quantum Silver or Silver Fox, black front grille, bonnet and side strake meshes, carbon fibre wing mirror caps, Zircotec black coated exhaust tailpipe finishers, smoked rear lamps, black lamp surrounds and carbon fibre rear lamp in fills, gloss black diamond turned wheels, DBS badge featuring a red 'S', Quilted Obsidian Black interior, carbon fibre upper fascia and piano black centre console, paddle tips trimmed in spicy leather, DBS seat embroidery including a red 'S', black anodised Bang & Olufsen speaker grilles and finally, a unique sill plaque featuring the individual build number.

In total, just 41 DBS Ultimate Volantes were built and supplied to all markets, of which, just 11 were UK RHD. This superb example, number 44 of 100, was first registered in September 2012 and finished in AML Carbon Black with Obsidian Black hides with Silver stitching.

In addition to the luxurious Ultimate specifications, listed above, notable optional extras specified with this particular example include: Alarm upgrade, Black brake calipers, Satin decklid panel, Carbon fibre veneer and gloss black diamond turned alloy wheels.

Having covered just 9,500 miles from new by its two owners, this car is in superb condition throughout. Servicing has been carried out annually (the service book boasting 9 stamps) by Aston Martin main agents with the last service having been carried out in January 2024.

Supplied with its original custom fit Aston Martin car cover and umbrella, a history file containing original purchase invoices, service invoices and MOT certificates, along with our usual high standards of preparation and with 12 months warranty.

Available for viewing and demonstration at our Hertfordshire showrooms.
