DESCRIPTION

2001 Aston Martin DB7 Vantage Volante – Manual

Finished in the iconic livery of Aston Martin Racing green, over Charcoal hides, complemented by the black convertible hood, we are delighted to offer this rare manual gearbox example of the DB7 Vantage Volante.

At 25 years old, the DB7 Vantage Volante is ageing incredibly gracefully and in our opinion, will go on to be considered as one of Aston Martins most ageless designs. Offering performance, comfort and style, in abundance, at current price levels, we can well understand the appeal of the model to a new generation of enthusiasts, who may well consider the DB7 a ‘modern classic’.

During the 4-year production period, between 1999 and 2003, Aston Martin produced 2,059 DB7 Vantage Volantes, for worldwide consumption and incredibly, less than 17% of those cars were specified with the 6-speed manual gearbox. To be exact, just 118 UK RHD manual DB7 Vantage Volantes were produced and, in our experience, we would suggest a lot less of those, remain ‘on the road’.

It is one of those examples, we are now pleased to offer. The only DB7 Vantage Volante built in this colour combination (as confirmed by the Aston Martin Heritage Trust). In addition the standard luxurious specifications of the DB7 Vantage Volante, optional extras selected on this car include; Oliver green carpet piping, heated front screen and carbon fibre veneers.

First registered in May 2001, it has clearly been much cherished by its 3 former owners, with regular maintenance entrusted to Aston Martin main agents or respected specialists. Our pre-sale inspection confirms the vehicle to be in superb condition, throughout.

Thoroughly prepared for sale by our own workshops and supplied to its next owner freshly serviced, with 4 new tyres, 12 months MOT and 12 months warranty, along with a full complement of keys, Owner’s Manual, substantial history file, wind deflector and tonneau cover.

Almost now impossible to find, with low owners, low mileage, service history and outstanding condition, if you’ve always fancied a DB7 Vantage Volante, this is one not to be missed!

Available for viewing and demonstration at our Hertfordshire showrooms.
